

Please do not allow the Indiana Telephone Privacy law to be weakened by allowing "established business relationships" to be exempted. I do not want to begin receiving calls soliciting additional business from anyone including those that I already do business with. I can contact them, when I need them. The Indiana law is fantastic as is and should not be changed!